

North Pocono

Amanda Ciero is a musically inclined Advanced Placement student.

In her senior year, Amanda, the daughter of Frank and Bonnie Ciero, has taken multiple accelerated and AP classes, including government, world history, English language and composition, physics 1, chemistry and calculus, while maintaining high honors. She is ranked in the top 20 of her class and a member of National Honor Society.

During the 2016-17 season, Amanda, a four-year member of the marching and concert bands, served as drum major. She is also an orchestra member.

She served as captain of the varsity basketball cheerleading squad and for the past four years volunteered as a North Pocono Junior Trojans cheerleading coach. Outside of school, Amanda is also active with the youth group at Moscow United Methodist Church and participated in two mission trips. She is a student demonstrator at Arabesque Academy of Dancing, where she also dances. Amanda bowls in the Saturday morning youth league at South Side Bowl and is employed by the bowling alley as a birthday party hostess.

She plans to attend Duquesne University or Pennsylvania State University after high school to major in biochemistry.

— KATHLEEN BOLUS

kbolus@timeshamrock.com; 570-348-9100 x5114;

@kbolusTT on Twitter