

North Pocono

Heather Kramer excels both academically and athletically.

The daughter of James and Mary Kramer, Heather received high honors, is a third-year member of National Honor Society and is ranked in the top 20 of her class. She takes challenging courses, including Advanced Placement government, English language and composition, physics 1, world history, statistics, calculus, psychology and chemistry.

Since freshman year, Heather has played for the girls' volleyball team, earning the title of co-captain this year. She was named to the Wyoming Valley Conference all-star second team.

For the past six years, Heather has been a manager for the boys volleyball team. Heather is a violinist in the orchestra and plays the piano.

She also volunteers with the local AAU Volleyball Club and has played in and directed multiple charity tournaments. Additionally, Heather is a barista at Cinemark 20 in Moosic.

Heather plans to attend the University of Central Florida to major in entertainment management. She hopes to become a scriptwriter or editor.

— KATHLEEN BOLUS

kbolus@timeshamrock.com; 570-348-9100 x5114;

@kbolusTT on Twitter