

North Pocono

Outside of school, senior Matthew McDonough volunteers in several community organizations.

He is a Moscow Borough Young Visionaries committee member and volunteers at Geisinger Community Medical Center. In summer 2015, he also co-coordinated the North Pocono Golf Camp with the golf coach, Brian Fruehan, and two fellow seniors.

At school, he's received high honors every quarter since freshman year, is currently ranked in the top 5 percent of his class and has taken 10 Advanced Placement courses.

During Matthew's junior year, he received the University of Rochester's Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award.

Treasurer of the Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science, Matthew is also the senior class treasurer, the vice president of National Honor Society, a member of the Science Olympiad and golf teams, and a track and field team captain.

He also works at the Elmhurst Country Club as a bag boy.

Matthew was accepted to West Point and will study life science. He hopes to serve as a surgeon in the Army.
